DESCRIPTION OF THE LITIGATION

On May 12, 2016, plaintiff Jan Polanik (“Plaintiff”) sent Defendants a demand pursuant to the Massachusetts Consumer Protection Act on behalf of the Class, alleging that Defendants’ Dunkin Donuts stores provided a butter substitute to customers who ordered a baked good with butter. Plaintiff filed a complaint against Defendants on March 24, 2017. The complaint alleges that Defendants’ Dunkin Donuts stores, without notice to Class members, provided margarine or a butter substitute (hereafter “butter substitute”) instead of butter to Class members who ordered a baked good (e.g., a bagel or muffin) and were charged extra for butter.

Defendants’ stores are Dunkin Donuts stores at the following locations only:

SETTLEMENT BENEFITS FOR CLASS MEMBERS

The settlement agreement, subject to final Court approval, provides that Defendants will provide a free baked good with butter to each customer who ordered a baked good with butter between June 24, 2012 and June 24, 2016 (the “Class Period”). Defendants have posted a notice in each store notifying customers of this proposed settlement. Each customer who identifies himself or herself as a Class member was to be given a voucher entitling the customer to a free baked good with butter for each baked good with butter the customer had ordered during the Class Period, up to a maximum of 3 baked goods per customer, provided that Defendants are obligated to provide vouchers for no more than 500 baked goods in total for all Defendants’ stores together. Class Members may obtain vouchers until the earlier of July 9, 2017 or the date that the maximum number of vouchers has been distributed. The vouchers may be presented for a free baked good with butter only after final approval of the settlement. If the proposed settlement receives final approval from the Court, Defendants will post a notice in each store informing Class members of the approval, and that vouchers may be presented for a free baked good with butter during the period of 90 days following the posting of such notice in the stores.

Defendants have also agreed that they will not offer a butter substitute with baked goods for at least one year, unless required to by Dunkin Donuts, the franchisor. If they do provide a butter substitute in the future, this will be clearly posted in the stores.

THE COURT’S PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS SETTLEMENT AND PROVISIONAL CLASS CERTIFICATION ORDER

On May 5, 2017, the Court entered an order granting preliminary approval of the class settlement and provisional class certification under Massachusetts Rule of Civil Procedure 23. The Court appointed Plaintiff as class representative. The Court also scheduled a final approval hearing to be held on September 19, 2017, or such further date to which the hearing may be continued.
